

Additional Notice to Residents of

Arizona

Communicable Diseases

We will not disclose any confidential communicable disease related information about an individual, except in situations where the subject of the information has provided us with a written authorization allowing the release or where we are authorized or required by state or federal law to make the disclosure.